Each chapter contains a guide on how to write letters of a certain type and two samples. After reading this book, you will acquire writing of the following types of letters: 1. Inquiry letter 2. Invitation letter 3. Letter of intent 4. Letter of recommendation5. Letter of resignation6. Order letter7. Sales letterIf you are interested in writing other types of letters, you can purchase our other book about letters – “Business and Academic Letters and Emails. Part I.” From the mentioned letter writing workbook, you will learn how to cope with academic recommendation, acknowledgment, adjustment, application, complaint, cover, and follow-up letters. What Information Is Included in the Guides?We included only essential and interesting information on letter writing in our guides. Each chapter contains a guide of five sections and two samples:Definition and aim of certain type of letterSteps on how to write certain type of letterThe structure of certain type of letterDos and don'tsQ&A about certain type of letterSample 1Sample 2Our guides don't contain unimportant information. You should explore the guides thoroughly to master writing letters of each type. This book will help you to improve your email writing skills as well. A note: The guides are completed within the requirements of MLA format. Benefits You Will Get From Our Samples We tried to create clear and concise guides so that everyone can understand and apply our recommendations. However, if something is unclear, you have the opportunity to see how theory works in practice by reading our samples. Each letter sample presented in the book is completed according to recommendations that we introduced to you through the guides. You are welcome to use all the samples as templates for your letters. Take ideas or expressions that you count as interesting. Also, you can adopt the regularities of signing envelopes from our samples. However, if you are going to send an e-mail, our samples will also be useful. In this case, you simply don't need to pay attention to the envelopes – take into consideration only the text of the letter itself. This book is only one of two of our letter writing books. Getting both “Business and Academic Letters and Emails. Part II” and “Business and Academic Letters and Emails. Part I” will be the best decision for those who need to use the power of letters to achieve their academic and career aims. Buy both books to be great in writing a variety of different types of letters!Note: Any resemblance to names of people living or dead and places is purely coincidental..
